

December 2016

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
				1 Turn to God immediately in those moments of anxiety	2 When in need of help do not hesitate to constantly ask God for what you need	3 Ask Mary to help you to overcome obstacles that prevent you from loving others
4 Let us pray that we are able to see our own faults instead of others'	5 Be willing to forgive those who have hurt you, if only with a prayer for him/her	6 Like Nicholas, let us not hold back when we are able to give to others.	7 We are called to trust God – all that happens is meant to help us grow in love	8 Happy Feast of Mary Pray a Hail Mary in gratitude to Mary	9 Pray to grow in gratitude, so that it outweighs sorrow and negativity	10 Ask Mary to help you to grow in love-divine power that forgives
11 Let us strive to be strong followers of Jesus who teach and preach with example	12 Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe Know that Jesus and Mary promise to be with us always	13 Make a greater effort to be more kind, compassionate and forgiving	14 Make choices that proclaim to the world that you are more of a giver than a receiver	15 Re-think how you are doing in preparing for the coming of the New – born King	16 Do you live courageously with good example?	17 No matter what our roots or family tree are like, we are invited to follow Jesus in loving
18 Pray to Jesus that you may be able to continue to do good no matter what happens	19 Take time to develop being kind to those who are difficult to get along with you	20 Even though it is not easy, it is important to be able to accept what we cannot understand	21 Know and believe that when you are overwhelmed, God will help you	22 Thank God with simplicity for all the good things you have experienced	23 Avoid getting frustrated by remembering that God's ways are not our ways	24 Think about this Holy Night as the angels announce the Newborn King
25 Happy Birthday Baby Jesus! We Love You!	26 Like St. Stephen be willing to speak the truth at all times no matter what the circumstances	27 We have choices: We can be strong in difficult times, or we can run. Choose strength	28 Let us pray for those who have no way of defending themselves	29 Let us be strong enough to stand for the truth choosing to do what is right	30 "Flee to Egypt" Let us pray for the refugees throughout the world.	31 Let us pray for the conversion of the USA that God may have his rightful place in our society.

